

About Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited (ANZ)

ANZ was established in 1835 and is one of the world's top 30 banks (according to Forbes magazine, 29 March 2007), with assets in excess of A$390 billion as of September 2007. ANZ serves over six million personal, private banking, small business, corporate, and institutional clients worldwide.

Our significant on-the-ground presence in the world's major financial centres of New York, London, Frankfurt, Singapore, Shanghai, Hong Kong, and Tokyo, as well as our home markets in Australia and New Zealand, gives ANZ the reach and expertise to help our partners succeed in today's increasingly global business environment.

ANZ in Asia

ANZ has over 3,000 specialists across 14 geographies in Asia. With 39 years of experience in the region, we provide integrated solutions across institutional and corporate banking, financial markets, trade finance, corporate finance, retail and private banking, and investment banking services.

ANZ Markets

ANZ Markets is a major player in the world's financial markets. We focus on developing an understanding of the industries our clients operate in and providing insights into our clients' strategic objectives. We use this understanding to deliver innovative solutions in foreign exchange, commodities, derivatives, fixed income, economic and market research, and risk management.

We have over 600 experienced financial market professionals working in major financial centres. We also have dealing rooms throughout Australia, New Zealand and our Asia-Pacific network and have access to a global network covering 28 countries.

The ANZ – NUS Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy Scholarship

This ANZ-sponsored scholarship is available to citizens or permanent residents of Vietnam. The scholarship includes full tuition, room and board, and expenses for the Master of Public Policy (MPP) program. Scholars will be required to specialise in the Economic and Policy Analysis track of the program as well as enrol in certain electives selected by ANZ.

ANZ offers an unparalleled working and internship opportunity during the course of the MPP program in our regional head office in Singapore. During the MPP program, the work requirement will be ten hours per week during the academic year and full time during the summer. You will be provided with challenging projects in our economics and research team, and exposed to a multicultural environment and the dynamics of the trading floor atmosphere.

Our dealing room in Singapore

Upon graduation, you will be bonded to work at one of the ANZ offices in Vietnam, where we are one of the leading foreign banks. Vietnam is a strategic geography in ANZ's growth plan for the region. There you will be provided with full-time employment in our Markets group, one of ANZ's most dynamic and fastest growing businesses. The bonding will be for a period of two years from the commencement of the full time employment.

For further details, please contact us by email at Asia.Opportunities@anz.com